

DISCOVER NEWPORT'S GILDED AGE

A journey to Newport, RI is a magical experience any time of year: winter, spring, summer or fall. This stunning coastal city overlooks Newport Harbor, Rhode Island Sound and the Atlantic Ocean, with breathtakingly beautiful seascapes and landscapes that stop you in your tracks. The downtown streets are lined with art galleries and museums, amazing restaurants and charming neighborhood parks and squares, and of course, its historic mansions.

These days, Newport is more popular than ever, thanks to the hit PBS series, The Gilded Age, a look at America's wealthiest families who created Newport's high society in the 19th century. The Gilded Age is directed by Julian Fellowes, creator of Downton Abbey, and was filmed in several Newport Mansion properties. Season Two is set to air in spring 2023, and the excitement is growing.

Gilded Age Scandals

Newport Jaguar Tours offers a fun guided tour of the more scandalous stories surrounding Newport families during this era. A fleet of classic British motorcars is available for tours, and tours can be customized. Pets and cocktails are welcome.

Newport Jaguar Tours

Discover
Newport's
Gilded
Age